

Unveiling the Australian Job Scene: July 2023 Insights!

Discover the latest findings from the highly anticipated Recruitment Experiences and Outlook Survey by Jobs and Skills Australia. Dive into the illuminating world of employment trends and explore valuable insights into the current job market.

Recruitment Snapshots

- A modest 2% dip in recruitment activity, with 49% of employers actively seeking talent.
- A significant decline from the previous peaks observed in May and July 2022, reaching an impressive 59%.

 Both Capital Cities and Rest of State areas experienced a marginal decrease, with a 3% and 1% drop, respectively.

Overcoming Talent Barriers

- An uplifting 4% decrease in recruitment challenges, as 63% of employers successfully find suitable candidates.
- Compared to the n peak of 75% reported in July 2022, the recruitment difficulties have eased.
- Capital Cities and Rest of State areas recruitment hurdles dropped by 3% and 5%.

Glimpse into Staffing

- With 21% of employers planning to expand their workforce the job market is looking promising in the upcoming 3 months.
- Though there is a slight setback of 3% compared to the previous month, positive growth is still anticipated.
- A small proportion (3%) of employers anticipated a decrease in staff.

Quarterly Quickie

- Engage in the spirited competition as Western Australia secures a solid second spot at 50%.
- The sizzling hot sector of Accommodation and Food Services boasts the highest recruitment rate of 65%, while the Professional, Scientific, and Technical Services sectorlags at 35%.

Note

All the juicy data comes straight from the official June 2023 survey by Jobs and Skills Australia.

Stay tuned as we keep you updated with everything you need to know about the ever-evolving job market in Australia.

Sources

- Recruitment Outlook and Experiences Survey, June 2023.
- Jobs and Skills Australia: https://www.jobsandskills.gov.au/work/ recruitment-experiences-and-outlook-survey#reports

Find your perfect fit with JobFitts Consultants - specialising in permanent, temporary, and contract recruitment for SMEs in Australia for over 20 years. Let us match you with skilled and ambitious professionals who will seamlessly fit into your dream organization for the long term.

Revolutionise your Recruitment

Our Track Record includes:

Converting 96% temporaries into placements

two-year retention rate

CONNECT WITH US