

Understanding The Relationship Between Benefits and Employee Retention

Unveiling the key findings from the Flare's National Employee Benefits index.

Employee Benefits Reduce Attrition Rate

50%

Employees with benefits are 50% less likely to consider leaving their current employer.

20%

Employees with access to benefits platform are 20% more likely to enjoy their day-to-day work.

30%

Employees with a benefits platform are more excited to go to work and are more satisfied in their day-to-day responsibilities.

Our Commitment to Your Success

Your success is our success. We pride ourselves on being more than just a recruitment agency; we are your strategic partner in growth. Our commitment to excellence is reflected in our proactive approach, transparent communication, and a relentless pursuit of the perfect match. Whether you're a candidate seeking the next career milestone or an organization aiming to build a high-performing team, we are here to make it happen.

Note : The data and findings presented are from Flare's National Employee Benefits Index. Stay tuned as we keep you up-to-date with everything you need to know about the ever- evolving job market in Australia.